

National Severe Weather Warning Service

Chief Forecasters Assessment

The very cold air has now reached northern parts of the UK with some heavy snow showers affecting parts of Scotland and northeast England during today.

The Met Office have issued a Yellow Warning of Snow

Valid from 10:05 on Sun, 10th Mar 2013 until 15:59 on Sun, 10th Mar 2013

Snow showers will continue to affect many parts of northern and eastern Scotland and northeast England giving a covering of snow, even at low levels. Showers will become prolonged in a few places resulting in localised accumulations of 2 to 5 cm, especially higher ground inland.

The public should be aware of possible travel disruption.
